

1503490

Project 2

1503390

Students are required to develop graduation projects in one of the information technology fields. Students are required to strictly follow standards during the analysis, design and implementation of their projects. Comprehensive documentation of the project stages is to be submitted.