

Course Description

0101235 Fiqh AL-Uqubat

This course is a mandatory requirement for the Department of Islamic Jurisprudence, dealing with research in terms of the border and retribution and discretionary and are differentiating show between estimated by the street punishment book or a year and is what is known as the limits and retribution and are sanctions already decreed the street is reflected in the first right of God and exalted in the borders and the human right to retribution and there is left to the discretion of the judge in what is known Baltazir.